One improvement I really liked in "The Other Lands" is that the story is significantly character-driven, to a greater degree than Acacia. The entire bad sequence of events that takes place in the book is set in motion by the stupidity and arrogance of a particular group of people, and the other characters are left to deal with the consequences.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: The Other Lands (Acacia, Book 2)

The Other Lands follows on nine years after the events of the excellent Acacia. In this sequel, we see Corinn Akaran firmly established as Queen of Acacia A brilliant sequel to Acacia...Really looking forward to its completion.
