A dysfunctional family is a family in which conflict, misbehavior, and often child neglect or abuse on the part of individual parents occur continuously and regularly, leading other members to accommodate such actions. Children sometimes grow up in such families with the understanding that such an arrangement is normal. Dysfunctional families are primarily a result of two adults, one typically ...

Just over two million youth under the age of 18 were arrested in 2008. Of these two million, about 95 percent had not been accused of violent crimes. For nonviolent youth involved in the juvenile justice system, incarceration in traditional residential placement facilities often does more harm than good. This factsheet discusses the weaknesses of large residential placement facilities, as well ...
