Poetry, when it is really such, is truth; and fiction also, if it is good for anything, is truth: but they are different truths. The truth of poetry is to paint the human soul truly: the truth of fiction is to give a true picture of life. The two kinds of knowledge are different, and come by different ways, come mostly to different persons.

A BOOK OF POems: Expressions from our Youth. A Book of Poems, expressions From Our Youth ... For most of my life as a writer I was fascinated and guided by a few poetry lines written by German poet Bertold Brecht in which he asked himself "In the dark times will there also be singing? Yes, there will also be singing."
