A result (also called upshot) is the final consequence of a sequence of actions or events expressed qualitatively or quantitatively. Possible results include advantage, disadvantage, gain, injury, loss, value and victory. There may be a range of possible outcomes associated with an event depending on the point of view, historical distance or relevance.

Each instrument has its own unique sound and their own unique way of playing them. To give some examples you can play instruments with a stick (drum, triangle and xylophone), with your fingers (piano, guitar and harp), your mouth (harmonica, flute, and trombone) and even your own body (clapping, snapping, humming and singing).
